A two-story brick block is being erected on Grant avenue, next to the New York The Odd Fellows' lodges of Ogden will hold anniversary services in the city hall Sunday morning.

Superintendent Wurtelle, of the Wyohe city yesterday.

J. L. Davis, of the Rio Grande Western rallway, was in the city yesterday looking after business interests. At last the street sprinklers have made their appearance, and the dusty streets will be no more. Good.

The new buildings and fences being erected at the Wasatch driving park are beginning to make quite a showing. Harry Stuyle, B. White, C. F. Reynolds and F. Fulton have undelivered messages at the Western Union telegraph office.

John J. Cortez will tear out the sheds ad-joining his block on Washington avenue, and erect a three story business block. Manager H. C. Gilbert, of the Bear River Canal company, was in Corinne yes-terday taking a look over the great ditch.

George F. Seager brought some excel-lent specimens from the Copper Queen group of mines in the Ogden canon yes-terday. Work was resumed yesterday on the electric railways. The surveys are being taken and the work will be pushed along with all possible rapidity.

The third of a series of balls by the Third ward choir, which was held in White's ball on Twenty-fourth street last evening, was a decided success. Adam Johnson while going to his home light before last was held up in Lester park. Mr. Johnson says the rascals searched his pockets pretty well, but he didn't have anything with him.

Oscar Connors, champion light-weight of California, and Charles Mozart, champion middle-weight of Montana, came together poglistically at the Novelty theatre in an eight round contest last night.

J. D. Hurd, formerly editor of the Utah State Democrat, will issue an initial number of the Saturday Evening Call this evening. The paper will be devoted entirely to dramatic and society news and will be pat-terned after some of the eastern periodicals of that class. The genial W. F. Carns, a relic of Ogden's editorial fraternity, dropped into town yesterday with his grip filled with clean collars and worn out lead peacils. He has been on a two months trip through the north and northwestern states, and comes back hale and hearty. His many friends are pleased to see him. are pleased to see bim.

On 'Change.

The produce exchange, which was but recently organized, is proving to be quite : success, and business on 'change assumed quite large proportions yesterday. The egg market was quite noticeable, and prices are becoming quite shaky. As the spring opens a general decline is antici-

The real estate exchange met in the chamber of commerce rooms at the usual hour yesterday morning, with President A. B. Patton in the chair. A fair number of brokers were present. Other than the regular routine business and the posting of offers and wants, no business of import-ance was transacted. However, considerable discussion was indulged in concerning the mining interests. The feeling of the meeting was to assist the members of the meeting was to assist the members of the mining exchange as much as possible in their effects to organize a prospecting party to visit the mountains a search of the hid-on wealth. The exchange then adjourned.
